SUBJECT: Liaison with The White House

REFERENCE: Executive Memorandum No. 13, dated 19 July 1962; Subject: Transmittal of Information on CIA Covert or Clandestine Activities

1. Your attention is called to the reference memorandum which lays down the ground rules on transmitting information on CIA covert or clandestine activities outside the Agency.

2. In order to insure complete coordination on substantive or organizational matters, similar rules will be in effect for the transmittal of information of this nature.

a. Such information requested by the White House staff will, in the case of substantive intelligence, be coordinated with the DD/I and channelled through that office to the White House. It will be the responsibility of the DD/I to keep the O/DCI advised of all requests from the White House and supplied with copies of all transmittals.

b. Information of an organizational or managerial nature requested by the White House will be released by the DCI, DDCI or Executive Director, and the O/DCI should be promptly advised of all such requests from the White House.
